

Nevins Memorial Library

Growing Community

Ten DIY Zone: Cooking and Crafts Older Reader

"A World of Food: India"
By Anita Ganeri
J 641.300 GAN

While it does include a few recipes, A World of Food series focuses primarily on the culture, farming, and crops of the country. This text on India also covers festivals and the differences between regions.

"Roald Dahl's Revolting Recipes"
By Roald Dahl
J 641.5 DAH

Fresh Mudburgers?! Lickable Wallpaper?! Scrambled Dregs?! Roald Dahl created many weirdly named foods for his books. Now you can try them!

"Hawaiian"
By Joyce Libal
J 641.5996 LIB

The American Regional Cooking Library presents recipes, accompanied by traditions, in consultation with the Culinary Institute of America.

"Cooking the Mexican"
By Rosa Coronado
J 641.5972 COR

This text covers the history, geography, customs, and cooking of Mexico. These recipes are simplified versions of what would typically be served for breakfast, lunch and dinner.

"Cody Coyote Cooks"
By Denice Skrepcinski
J 641.59 SKR

Read some tall tales that accompany super southwest recipes. The traditional trickster Coyote makes his way through Texas, New Mexico, and Arizona while introducing the reader to new ingredients.

"Let's Sew"
By DK Publishing
J 646.4 LET

These 10 easy sewing projects are ideal for beginners. Offerings include what should be contained in a sewing kit, how to thread a needle, and different types of stitches.

"Soapmaking"
By Joe Rhatigan
J 688.12 RHA

Melt and pour soapmaking is lots of fun once you know how to do it, and here's the perfect guide. Explains everything you need to get started.

"Knit, Hook, and Spin"
By Laurie Carlson
J 745.5 CAR

Within fiber arts there are many specialties. This text gives an overview of many of them such as knitting, crocheting, spinning, weaving, and braiding.

"Candle Making"
By Deborah Hufford
J 745.5 HUF

This book on candle making doesn't limit itself. It also includes other crafts that can be made with melted wax. These will require some supervision, but candle making is unique and can be used for gifts.

"Berry Smudges and Leaf Prints"
By Ellen B. Senisi
J 745.5 SEN

If you've ever wondered about how natural pigments are made, this book explains. Use natural items to harness their color in the creation of natural dye. Painting or pressing, Berry Smudges will delight.